

Being a consultant:

When you are a consultant the most important thing is:

- 1)...Being an expert
- 2)...Understanding your clients needs and problems
- 3)...Coming up with new innovative solutions
- 4)...Something else

What kind of value is the most important value for you to bring to your clients:

- 1) Knowledge in general about their problem
- 2) The easiest ways to make changes right away
- 3) Helping them develop solutions and strategies for the future
- 4) Open corner

The most difficult thing about being a student consultant is:

- 1) Making sure that the collaboration in the group works
- 2) Making sure that the collaboration with the client works
- 3) Knowing when you know enough to come up with valid solutions
- 4) Open corner
